A&P to Hold Price of Food

Company Throws Weight Against Unwarranted Increases

NEW YORK — John A. Hartford, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, Tuesday threw the full weight of the nation's greatest food distributing organization behind efforts of government agencies to prevent unwarranted rises in food prices.

The six-point pledge "to our nation and to the people of the United States" published in more than 3,000 newspapers throughout the United States, Mr. Hartford outlined a definite working program for cooperation in the national war effort.

"We are in the food industry can control the wholesale price of food," said Mr. Hartford. "Only the government of the United States has power to do this, and for the protection of our people this power in the government is now a necessary power."

Today, with the nation at war, we believe that no private interest has any rights in conflict with the general public interest."

The six-point pledge by which the company will be guided in fulfilling its public responsibility declared that "we will cooperate unhesitatingly in every effort of authorized government agencies to prevent unwarranted price increases."

"We will continue our efforts to assist the farmers and growers of America in the orderly marketing of their products at the fairest possible prices to them."

"We will make every effort to hold our inventories at the lowest point consistent with good service to our customers because hoarding, whether by whole-salers, retailers, or consumers, will cause higher prices."

"We will endeavor to continue to pay our employees the highest wages and to give them the best working conditions in the grocery business generally."

"We will make every effort to continue to sell food at retail at the lowest gross margin of profit in the history of the retail grocery business."

Pointing out that the armed forces of the country are getting more and better food than ever before, Mr. Hartford said, "It is equally important that all of our people working and living behind the lines should be better fed and better nourished than ever before in our national history."

Watch Services at Tabernacle

Local Church Plans Services Wednesday Night

Plans are under way at the Hope Gospel Tabernacle for the second Watch Night service ever held there, the Rev. J. E. Hamill announced Tuesday. The service will be on Wednesday night, beginning at 8 o'clock and continuing until one minute after midnight.

A special musical program is being arranged. On the program will appear the Ladies Chorus, Choral Ambassadors trio, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. May, Miss Dorothy Horn, Mrs. J. E. Hamill, Miss Regna Basye, Misses Charlotte and Mary Catherine Brainer, and others.

A number of local and visiting ministers will give short talks including George Herr, from Fort Leonard Wood for the holidays, S. A. Mays recently returned from an evangelistic tour through the southwest, Carl Gammel Monticello, W. H. Von Hamill, "The meeting is open to all those desiring to attend, the Rev. Hamill said.

He expressed the hope that every person in Hope would go some place to church to welcome in the New Year, which he said, "May be the most crucial in our history, and should cause us to realize our need of the church and its Christ."

Nunceon
The Anglo-Saxon words "lunch" and "nunceon" gave us our word "nunceon." Nunceon was the poor-time beverage; lunch a piece of bread.

Urge Donation to Red Cross

Dr. Dan Smith Appeals to Citizens to Contribute

Dr. Dan Smith, surgeon for the Arkansas State Guard, has appealed to all citizens to contribute to the Arkansas Red Cross Fund Drive.

"We will make every effort to hold our inventories at the lowest point consistent with good service to our customers because hoarding, whether by whole-salers, retailers, or consumers, will cause higher prices."

"We will endeavor to continue to pay our employees the highest wages and to give them the best working conditions in the grocery business generally."

"We will make every effort to continue to sell food at retail at the lowest gross margin of profit in the history of the retail grocery business."

Pointing out that the armed forces of the country are getting more and better food than ever before, Mr. Hartford said, "It is equally important that all of our people working and living behind the lines should be better fed and better nourished than ever before in our national history."

Level Down

LOUISVILLE, KY. — (UPI) — A letter to-the-editor made this unusual request: "Will you please ask to someone out to level the high spot between the holes on Whetstone Avenue? The reason I suggest this is because there are so many holes that it will be much easier to level the street down than try to build it up."
